HOW HE SHOT AND KILLED KEENAN. WITNESSES WHOSE TESTIMONY DISAPPOINTED THE

Ex-Policeman William Conroy looked thin and baggard as he sat in the Court of Special Sessions yesterday on the second day of his trual for murder in the first degree. Judge Cowing and the jury that had listened on Friday to the opening speech of Assistant District-Attorney Fellows heard yesterday the testimony of several witnesses for the prosecution. The court-room was crowded. The testimony on the previous day had shown that Peter Keenan had died of wounds inflicted by Conroy. John Buckley, the first witness called by Colonel Fellows, testified that about 8 o'clock on the evening of November 3 he met Conroy at Thirty-sixth-st. and Second-avc. near Jones's liquor store. Something was said about getting a drink, and Conroy gave the witness fifty cents, with which he obtained two glasses of sherry wine, one of which he took outside to the officer. The officer had another drink of sherry at Buckley's expense. About 11 o'clock Buckley was in Cody's liquor store, at No. 332 East Thirty-sixth-st. As he was leaving it he saw Conroy outside. Thomas Murphy, a local candidate, had been giving drinks to the crowd. The witness said to Conroy: "Murphy has left a drink for you inside." The policeman went inside and took a drink of sherry. The witness asked Conroy what he would do if a roundsman came by. Conroy said: "Oh, I'll arrest you for a squarer. I'll say that you were a suspicious character and I followed you in." Conroy then called up the crowd to have a drink. The policeman again took sherry. He then got into a dispute with one McGuinness and knocked him down and kicked him. He smashed a pane of glass with his club. He then drew his pistol, and as the crowd shouted at him he fired. The witness then took the officer out. Keenan, who was killed, stood at some distance from Conroy.

On cross-examination the witness said that Conroy's position when shooting. He said that Conroy's acts were irrational that evening. He had noticed him saying and deing many peculiar things. He thought he acted as though he was crazy. The PROSECUTION.

"Then can you explain in what manner the bullet happened to wander around and get into Keenan's body ?"

The question was objected to, but the witness finally said that the pistol was pointed toward the floor when it went off.

Dr. Philip E. Donlin, a Deputy Coroner, testified that he made an autopsy on Keenan's body, and that the bullet went inward from in front and a little toward the right. The bullet was found about three inches from the surface of the back. There was also a fracture of the nose and an injury to one of the ears. The course of the bullet was not downward at all.

was also a fracture of the nose and an injury of the ears. The course of the bullet was not downward at all.

Daniel Keating, another of the young men who was in the store before and at the time of the shooting, gave an account somewhat similar to that of Buckley. He, however, represented Conroy's actions as those of a dranken rather than an insane man. His testimony, like Buckley's, was a disappointment to the prosecution.

tions as those of a drunken rather than an instance man. His testimony, like Buckley's, was a disappointment to the prosecution.

Patrick Cody, the keeper of the liquor store at No. 322 East Thirty-sixth-st., was the next witness. He said that Cantwell, Keating, Keenan, Buckley and others were in the store on the evening of November 3. When Conroy came in he took a drink, The men were talking among themselves, and Cantwell said Conroy was not much good without his club. Conroy then gave his club to Keenan and said he could fight any man in the house. 'Buckley said there was no use in lighting without money and Conroy showed some money; but there was no fight; Couroy then "treated" the crowd, and disputed with McGuinness and knocked him down and kicked him. Conroy drew his revolver. The wife of the witness, who was in a rear room, came to the door. Her husband warned her to go back as the policeman had his pistol. Cantwell and Keenan kere standing near Mrs. Cody when the policeman raised his pistol and fired. Keenan fell and was helped up by Cody, while the policeman were standing near Mrs. Cody when the policeman wer

TRANSFERS ASKED BY TWO DEPARTMENTS—THE MAYOR EXPLAINS.

The meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, yesterday, in contrast with that held has Thursday, was a quiet one. The first business was a communication from the Department of Charties and Correction explaining why the transfer of $20,000 from unexpended balances was asked. The price of meat, it was stated, has advanced so that it will cost for the present year $74.474 19 more than last year, fish $10,000 more, and milk $10,000 more, while the number of immees has been increased by 700. Controller Grandfored a rosolution authorizing the transfer of $20,870 74 from the supply account of the Chartitts Department for 1882 to the same account for 1883. The Mayor moved that the resolution be limited to the larger item of the four contained in the Controller's resolution, $12,147 78. This suggestion was adopted. "I shall vote no on this resolution, sand resident Reilly asked. Comm. Mr. Porter replied that by rigid economy for the properties of the common will be covered into the city treasury. The Board agreed to begin the final consideration of the estimates for the maintenance of the departments for the coming year on Thursday.

Mayor Edson then made the following statement:

On Friday evening last The E-ening Post asserted in an editorial that "in the Board of Estimate and Apportionment yesterday the Mayor declared that he had come to the conclusion that the City Government could not be administered on business principles, and intimated plainly that he should make no attempt in future to so administer it." and upon this alleged declaration as its text The Post produced a long editorial, filled with wisdom and good advice, which should be followed, but for one fact, viz. there is not one word of truth in the text. I have never given expression to or entertained such views, nor have I come to the conclusion which, it is alleged by The Fost, I declared on the occasion referred to. Again, on Saturday evening The Erening Post says in its leading editorial that "the request of the District-Attorney that the sum of $20,000 be appropriated to pay the accountants employed by the special Grand Jury to investigate the affairs of the muni-ipal service is opposed by the Mayor and the defenders of the city officials as an unnecessary expenditure." This is wholly untrue. The District-Attorney has not requested the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to make any appropriation whatever to pay the accountants employed by the special Grand Jury. The District-Attorney was present at a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and read from a paper a suggestion that the special Grand Jury would require $20,000 if such experts were to be employed. He at the same time said that was new in his office and was not prepared then to advise the Board whether such an appropriation was necessary, or how it should be made if found necessary. I said to Mr. Peckham that the flual appropriations would probably not be completed by the Board before December the matter, and the Board immediately afterward adjourned.

Park Commissioner Viele asked the Board to authorize a transfer of $4,018 to fit up the old skate house in Central Park, pending the erection of a new one, for which provision has been made in the estimates for 1883.

Mr. Asten—I have no recollection of saying so. I certainly have no desire to engage in a wrangle with any member of the Board. But I certainly shall always be governed in my actions in the Board by what I deem the city's best interests.

The Board then adjourned to Monday next.

NEWS OF THE STRIKES. NEWS OF THE STRIKES.

A large meeting of the striking carpet weavers was held yesterday morning at Wender's Assembly Rooms in West Forty-fourth-st. The meeting was secret, but considerable enthusiasm was manifested. The strikers assert that they have ample funds to carry them through another month without calling for outside aid, and that the strike will be over immediately after the holidays.

The contractors having in charge the buildings in Seventy-third-st, between Eighth and Ninth-aves, are again advertising for hands. The delegates of the building trades unions are keeping a close watch over the building in the hope of preventing any new men going to work.

THE MISFORTUNES OF A PRIEST.

Daniel O'Mahony, who says he is a Catholic priest having a parish in Macroon, County Cork, Ifes at Bellevue Hospital in a critical condition. The doctors said yesterday that he was perfectly rational but was suffering from severe pains which seemed to be produced by peritohitis, and that they would be able to determine to-day. He had not given any further account of himself except that he had been officiating for a short time at a church at No. 96 Chatham-st. In reply to a question from the doctor he said that he had not been in the habit of drinking. Upon inquiry at Sweeney's Hotel it was learned that he had not been there at all. No. 96 Chatham-st. is a crockery store, and next door to it is Buckley's Hotel. From the bookkeeper and several of the lodgers, a Tribune reporter learned that Mr. O'Mahony took lodgings at the hotel on November 12. On Saturday morning he returned about 4 o'clock apparently intoxicated, two men dressed like 'longshoremen being with him. The pastors of St. Andrew's Church learned of his condition and tried to get him into Sweeney's Hotel, but could do nothing with him and were obliged to leave him. They say that he is not a priest in full orders, but that the ecclesiastical record shows that there is an assistant pastor in Macroon named Daniel O'Mahony. The bookkeeper at Buckley's Hotel says that O'Mahony complained to him that he had been robbed of all his money except the $5 bill of the Irish Republic, and that from his appearance and actions he was convinced that he had been derugged. PAINE MAKES NO CHARGE FOR HIS GRIP.

The Brooklyn Bridge Trustees yesterday agreed to pay $1,500 to Vanderpoel, Green & Cuming for defending the suits brought against the trustees in consequence of the disaster on Decoration Dav. The Executive Committee recommended the acceptance of a concession by Colonel Paine of his grip and all its appliances to the use of the trustees forever, without charge. This was approved, and President Kingsley was authorized to sign the agreement in behalf of the trustees, Colonel Paine having signed it. The treasurer's report showed total receipts of $15,376,260 39, and total expenditures of $15,376,260 39, and total expenditures of $15,379,3798 56. General H. W. Slocum sent in his resignation as a trustee upon the ground that his duties as a Member of Congress would occupy his time. It was accepted. Henry J. Meredith was dismissed from the Bridge police force for conduct unbecoming an officer.

Superintendent Martin reported that in November 561,529 persons were carried in the cars, 403,844 walked over the promenade, and 44,364 teams crossed the Bridge. The total number of passengers carried in the cars up to this month was 1,082,300, and the total number of foot passengers was 4,250,000. While the railway traffic had steadily increased, Mr. Martin said, there had been no difficulty in carrying all the passengers. With two cars in a train and trains two and a half minutes apart, 4,000 passengers could be carried each way in an hour. The number of round trips made had been 12,201, and Colonel Paines grip had failed to carry the cars across the Bridge only four times out of 24,402.

OF THE

NERVOUS SYSTEM.

The importance of the nervous system, its power over life and the direct bearing which it has on human happiness, is theroughly recognized; its uses and the danger of overtaxing it, whether through intense mental application or by the excessive indulgence of the appetites and propensites are proper subjects for consideration. When the nervous system is deranged, it is absolutely necessary to promptly seek advice from an expert who, for a long series of years has devoted his whole time and attention to this study, and who, from his experience and practice, has learned to discover at once the cause and as promptly apply the remedy, thus avoiding the painfully slow seeking for the truth so common to the inexperienced and so annoying to the patient, who, very naturally, wants to know without delay what is the matter, the extent of the derangement, the probabilities of recuperation and the The importance of the nervous system, its power over life the derangement, the probabilties of recuperation and the

It is precisely the same with the nerves that proside over organic life. The value of this branch of medical practice can scarcely be over-rated, for it reaches marriage, the perpetuation of family names, the securing of hereditary titles and the retention of estates in the same family.

A SURE THING.

Baldness is only incurable when the hair roots are dead and absorbed, which is a rare condition. In nearly all cases they are simply torpid, and can be stimulated to put forth a new growth of hair by the use of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, the only preparation that cures baldness and restores youthful color to gray hair.

Baldness Cured and Age Rejuvenated.

J. W. Hammond, Lake Preston, D. T., when he was but 40 years old found his hair growing gray. At 50, his hair and whiskers were entirely white. So they continued until he reached 00 years of age, when he began using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, four bottles of which sufficed to restore their original rich, dark brown color.

MRS. AUGUST VALENTINE, of Buffalo, N. Y., had become nearly baid, and though she made use of many of the so-called hair restorers, none had any effect. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR did what nothing else could do, and now the lady again has a fine head of hair, thanks entirely to it.

GEO. MAYER, Flatonia, Texas, presented an apparently hopeless case. Baldness was hereditary in his family. By the time he was 23 years old be had scarcely any hair left. One bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR started a soft, downy growth all over his scalp, and in a few months his head was covered with soft, dark and abundant hair.
